

I do benefit from listening to XM Radio and its traffic and weather channels. There should not be any kind of prohibition to access valuable information as such from any available sources. Let alone a source that individuals actually have to pay to get. Think of the future advancements in features such as this that this prohibition may prevent from advancing. So please reject the NAB's petition 04-160.

Regards,
-Yared